

Kiln Theatre

CASUAL VENUE TECHNICIAN

Application Pack

“A marvellous community reality...alive with challenge and promise.” James Baldwin

Kiln Theatre is the creative and cultural hub of Kilburn in Brent, a uniquely diverse area of London where over 140 languages are spoken.

We are a place of creative transformation and artistic ambition – an empowering space where community connection sits at the centre of everything we do. From the heart of Kilburn, we stage an internationally acclaimed programme of UK premieres and dynamic revivals – real human stories that entertain, fire the imagination and reflect the world around us.

As Tricycle and now Kiln, we are proud of our history and passionate about our future. We nurture talent and develop pathways whilst celebrating diversity and removing barriers – driving world-class theatre and opening up opportunities for who gets to make it.

“Kiln Theatre has revitalised the cultural life of Brent and brings world-class theatre at an affordable price to people from all walks of life.” Zadie Smith

Under Artistic Director/CEO Amit Sharma, Kiln Theatre continues its reputation of producing world-class work that reflects the richness of its local communities and the wider world.

Kiln Theatre has a 292 seat theatre alongside a 291 seat cinema auditorium, a bar and restaurant plus two rehearsal spaces which are used for our productions, workshops and Creative Engagement projects.

We believe that theatre can be for anyone. A neighbourhood venue shaping national conversation.

The Purists designed by Tom Piper, Two Strangers (Carry a Cake Across New York) designed by Soutra Gilmour, Retrograde designed by Frankie Bradshaw and The Lonely Londoners designed by Laura Ann Price.

“I wanted to say thank you for creating the most diverse theatre I have been to. In terms of race, culture, class, age, everything – not only in the selection of shows and actors, but in the audience.”

OUR VISION

To ignite artistic imagination through diverse storytelling that reflects the richness of our world. Kiln is a space where we celebrate our shared humanity, build a powerful sense of belonging and demonstrate that theatre can be for anyone.

OUR MISSION

From the heart of Kilburn, we tell real human stories shaped by exceptional artists – harnessing the power of creativity to remove barriers, celebrate individuality and bring people together.

OUR VALUES

Kiln is Representative. We represent diverse voices on and off our stage - including different perspectives and experiences in our decision making.

Kiln is Open-hearted. We create together and build trust by being kind, empathetic and welcoming - acting with warmth and integrity.

Kiln is Enterprising. We think creatively and act resourcefully to generate opportunities to support and grow our artistic ambitions.

Kiln is Courageous. We are daring, willing to take creative risks and push boundaries to make meaningful and relevant work.

Our values shape the way we work. They are key to unlocking our ability to ensure our work is accessible and relevant, that we make brave, bold choices, and that we maintain our integrity and empathy. They underpin the way we build and maintain our relationships with the artists, communities and audiences we make work with and for.

OUR PRIORITIES

KILN THEATRE

Kiln Theatre presents around six productions per year, many of these are commissioned and written specifically for this theatre or are programmed in collaboration with national or international companies.

Recent productions include Amit Sharma's critically acclaimed 5-star production of Retrograde by Ryan Calais Cameron, which transferred to London's West End, the Pulitzer Prize award-winning English by Sanaz Toossi (in association with the Royal Shakespeare Company), Peanut Butter and Blueberries (UK Theatre Award nominated for Best New Play) by Suhaiymah Manzoor Khan, Two Strangers (Carry a Cake Across New York), which transferred to the West End and then to the American Repertory Theater in Boston after a record breaking run at Kiln, Roy Williams' critically acclaimed adaptation of The Lonely Londoners (now one of Kiln's top selling shows of all time), and the sell-out revival of The Ministry of Lesbian Affairs by Iman Quereshi.

CREATIVE ENGAGEMENT AT KILN

Our award-winning Creative Engagement programme aims to champion the imagination, aspiration and potential of the Brent community young and old. We invest in creating meaningful relationships with young people to inspire and encourage their creativity, their confidence and self-esteem. We work with older people to create a thriving community around our theatre.

KILN CINEMA & EVENTS

Our 291-seat cinema shows the best art-house and mainstream films alongside festivals and special Q&A screenings. In our cinema auditorium we also host a year-round programme of talks, Q&A's, book launches and special events with some of the country's top artists, entrepreneurs, academics and writers.

FUNDING

Our annual turnover is approximately £4 million. Kiln Theatre receives funding from Arts Council England as a National Portfolio Organisation. Additional income comes from box office ticket sales and other commercial revenue streams, with a final sum generated through fundraising.
